

“A HEART THAT IS ANXIOUS”
Troubled Hearts Series, Part 3
May 9, 2021

*“Don’t let your hearts be troubled.
Trust in God, and trust also in me.”*

John 14:1

When the heart is anxious _____

“³²They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Sit here while I pray.’ ³³He took Peter, James and John along with him, and he began to be deeply distressed and troubled. ³⁴‘My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,’ he said to them. ‘Stay here and keep watch.’ ³⁵Going a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from him. ³⁶‘Abba, Father,’ he said, ‘everything is possible for you. Take this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will.’” Mark 14:32-36

1. When Jesus was anxious _____

“⁹Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. ¹⁰If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble.”

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

2. When Jesus was anxious _____

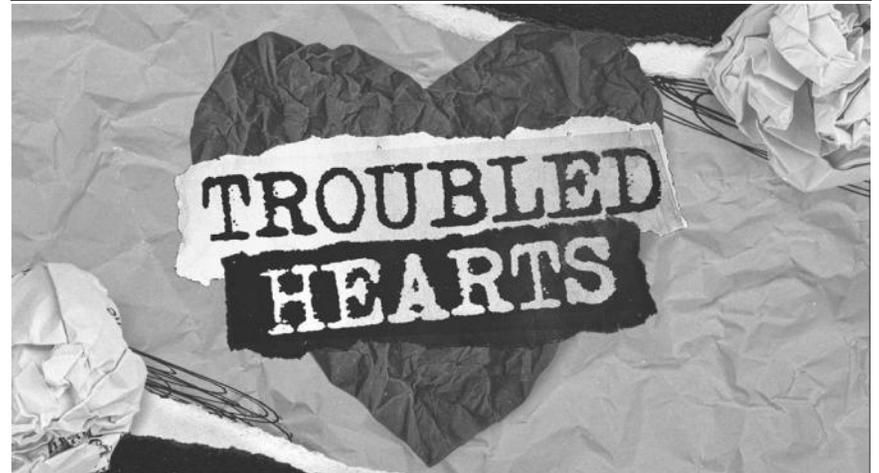

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.” Philippians 4:6

3. When Jesus was anxious _____

“We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.” 2 Corinthians 10:5

A HEART THAT IS EXHAUSTED

Did Jesus ever get tired? Yes, He did, just as we all do. Even though he was perfect, His body still needed rest. The attention from the crowds kept him busy. When he healed people, it cost him strength and energy. We can identify with the heart of Jesus when we pull away now and then to rest in and commune quietly with our Heavenly Father.
