Fear stops us from doing _____

“¹After the death of Moses the Lord’s servant, the Lord spoke to Joshua son of Nun, who had served Moses: ²‘Moses My servant is dead. Now you and all the people prepare to cross over the Jordan to the land I am giving the Israelites. ³I have given you every place where the sole of your foot treads, just as I promised Moses. ⁴Your territory will be from the wilderness and Lebanon to the great Euphrates River—all the land of the Hittites—and west to the Mediterranean Sea. ⁵No one will be able to stand against you as long as you live. I will be with you, just as I was with Moses. I will not leave you or forsake you. ⁶Be strong and courageous, for you will distribute the land I swore to their fathers to give them as an inheritance. ⁷Above all, be strong and very courageous to carefully observe the whole instruction My servant Moses commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or the left, so that you will have success wherever you go. ⁸This book of instruction must not depart from your mouth; you are to recite it day and night so that you may carefully observe everything written in it. For then you will prosper and succeed in whatever you do. ⁹Haven’t I commanded you: be strong and courageous? Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.’” Joshua 1:1-9

NEXT WEEK...

Join us for a brand new sermon series!

When we take a stand, in the right ways, at the right time, for the right reason, it can change the course and direction of our lives. The flip side is true, as well. When we compromise on the wrong things, in the wrong ways, at the wrong times, it can cost us way more than we can even imagine at this time in our lives. In this series we’re going to look at how we take a stand for the things that matter most, and look at some stories of the most courageous people in the Bible.
