

PSALM 90
Summer In The Psalms, Part 1
July 9, 2017

“Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.”
Psalm 90:12

When it comes to the concept of time, _____

“¹Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations. ²Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.”
Psalm 90:1-2

The context of time in our life is _____

“³You turn people back to dust, saying, ‘Return to dust, you mortals.’ ⁴A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night. ⁵Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death — they are like the new grass of the morning: ⁶In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered. ⁷We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation. ⁸You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence. ⁹All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan.” Psalm 90:3-9

Our life is so brief we can’t create something meaningful _____

“¹⁰Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty, if our strength endures; yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away. ¹¹If only we knew the power of your anger! Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due.”
Psalm 90:10-11

If we could see God as He really is, _____

“¹²Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.” Psalm 90:12

Better decisions are made when we understand _____

NEXT WEEK...
Psalm 107

“Let the redeemed of the Lord say so!” There is no person too far for God to reach. Those who come to God all come by grace because of His great love. In this Psalm Student Pastor Jesse Hicks teaches as we look at our own story of redemption and remember to give thanks for His great love!
