GOD KNOWS EVERYTHING

“¹Lord, You have searched me and known me. ²You know when I sit down and when I stand up; You understand my thoughts from far away. ³You observe my travels and my rest; You are aware of all my ways. ⁴Before a word is on my tongue, You know all about it, Lord. ⁵You have encircled me; You have placed Your hand on me. ⁶This extraordinary knowledge is beyond me. It is lofty; I am unable to reach it.” Psalm 139:1-6

GOD IS EVERYWHERE

“⁷Where can I go to escape Your Spirit? Where can I flee from Your presence? ⁸If I go up to heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, You are there. ⁹If I live at the eastern horizon or settle at the western limits, ¹⁰even there Your hand will lead me; Your right hand will hold on to me. ¹¹If I say, “Surely the darkness will hide me, and the light around me will be night” — ¹²even the darkness is not dark to You. The night shines like the day; darkness and light are alike to You.” Psalm 139:7-12

GOD IS INFINITELY POWERFUL

“¹³For it was You who created my inward parts. You knit me together in my mother’s womb. ¹⁴I will praise You because I have been remarkably and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful, and I know this very well. ¹⁵My bones were not hidden from You when I was made in secret, when I was formed in the depths of the earth. ¹⁶Your eyes saw me when I was formless; all my days were written in Your book and planned before a single one of them began.” Psalm 139:13-16

Psalm 23

“How does God want me to respond to the anxiety in my life?” Well, like all the great questions of life, Scripture affords us an answer. This time it comes from the life of David. Community Pastor Tim Seippel will show us in this Psalm that there is a constructive, God-honoring way to respond to anxiety in our lives.
