

PSALM 19
Summer In The Psalms, Part 7
August 20, 2017

“¹The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky proclaims the work of His hands. ²Day after day they pour out speech; night after night they communicate knowledge. ³There is no speech; there are no words; their voice is not heard. ⁴Their message has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. In the heavens He has pitched a tent for the sun. ⁵It is like a groom coming from the bridal chamber; it rejoices like an athlete running a course. ⁶It rises from one end of the heavens and circles to their other end; nothing is hidden from its heat.” Psalm 19:1-6

Psalm 78

The philosopher, essayist, and novelist George Santayana said, “Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.” In this psalm, Community Pastor Tim Seippel helps us discover that what happens in the past – good or bad – should serve to help us in our relationship with God in the future. Knowing God’s precepts gives us a foundation to overcome our past mistakes and teach our children how to avoid them.
