

INSIDE OUT
Address The Mess Series, Part 3
September 24, 2017

*"...being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus."
Philippians 1:6*

The Christian experience is not about avoiding another mess, it's about _____

"³I thank my God every time I remember you. ⁴In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy ⁵because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, ⁶being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. ⁷It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart and, whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. ⁸God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus. ⁹And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, ¹⁰so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ — to the glory and praise of God." Philippians 1:3-11

NEXT WEEK...
"Messy-er"

When you have a mess to address, first options often make messes messier. Eventually those messes will become a one or two sentence part of your story. What story do you want to tell? In this message, Bobby uses the story of David to explore an approach that can take the "-er" out of your messy situations.
