Afterlife Series, Part 3
February 14, 2021

Heaven exists as the _____ for those who _____

“¹Then I saw “a new heaven and a new earth,” for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. ²I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. ³And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, ‘Look! God’s dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. ⁴He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.’ ⁵He who was seated on the throne said, ‘I am making everything new!’ Then he said, Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.’ ⁶He said to me: ‘It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life. ⁷Those who are victorious will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children. ⁸But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—they will be consigned to the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death.’”

Coreluv has been active in Haiti since 2011, working in conjunction with other believers in local churches. Having been gifted with 12 acres of land in Myan, Haiti, Coreluv opened an orphanage to 14 boys and girls in 2013. The expanded facilities are now home to 71 orphans and a school that educates 260 students. The Coreluv community in Myan employs 90 native Haitians, providing employment for nearly 20% of the community's population. The orphanage community in Maissade, Haiti, was founded in 2014. By 2016, the ministry had acquired seven acres of land and built a facility that now houses 40 children. In addition to their other projects in Haiti, Coreluv initiated a feeding program for disadvantaged children in Southern India. The program provides 300 children with nutritious meals every day – seven days every week.
